Project Plans

A project plan is a set of lies that make others decide what we want them to decide!

Failure First Aid Kit

Receive a number of conflicting appointments, making your denials trustworthy.

Via SMS, you will receive 4 examples of small failures that you can use for downplaying your failure.

You will receive four options for passing the problem off to someone else, including 2 colleagues and 2 external parties.

We will order an Uber taxi immediately, which will be ready to pick you up within 10 minutes at the rear entrance.

Congratualtions, you have executed the right to fail (brilliantly)! Tell everyone how proud you are and that you are happy to share your experiences.
